

Filling in the Map: Ferdinand Magellan

Filling in the Map: Ferdinand Magellan

How was your weekend?

Unit 5 Lesson 3

Have you heard of Magellan before? What do you know about him?

A Couple Reminders

A Couple Reminders

- Today: Finish Unit 5 lesson 3
- Tomorrow: Go over study guide & review
- Weds: Take Unit 5 Test

Objectives

Objectives

- Identify Magellan and where he explored
- Examine the significance of Magellan's voyage

Let??s review

Let's review

True or False

Pope Alexander VI divides a map of the world in half between Spain and Portugal

What was it called:

Line of Demarcation

Who am I

Who am I

I sailed all the way to India from Portugal:

Spain pays for his trip, tries to sail to Asia, ends up in the Caribbean

A. Christopher
Columbus

B. Vasco da Gama

C. Pedro Cabral

I tried to sail to India but I went too far out from the coast of Africa and ended up in what is today known as Brazil:

~~A. Bartolomeu Dias~~

~~B. Vasco da Gama~~

C. Pedro Cabral

In Brazil they speak Portuguese because Portuguese explorers come over to Brazil

Slide7

— = Vasco da Gama

Lets talk English!

Lets talk English!

- Lets try a new word:

CIRCUMNAVIGATE

distance around a circle

Navigation

ex. Circumnavigating the Earth

Magellan??s Early life??..

Magellan's Early life.....

- Born in 1480 in northern Portugal
- Parents died when he was only 10 years old
- At the age of 12, Magellan was appointed as the queen's messenger in the royal court.
 - Young boys were appointed as messenger as a source of education.
 - He learned about many famous explorers and the most important information about navigating ships.
- First voyage at sea – 25 years old

Unit 5 Lesson 3 Day 3

Magellan's Voyage

Magellan's Voyage

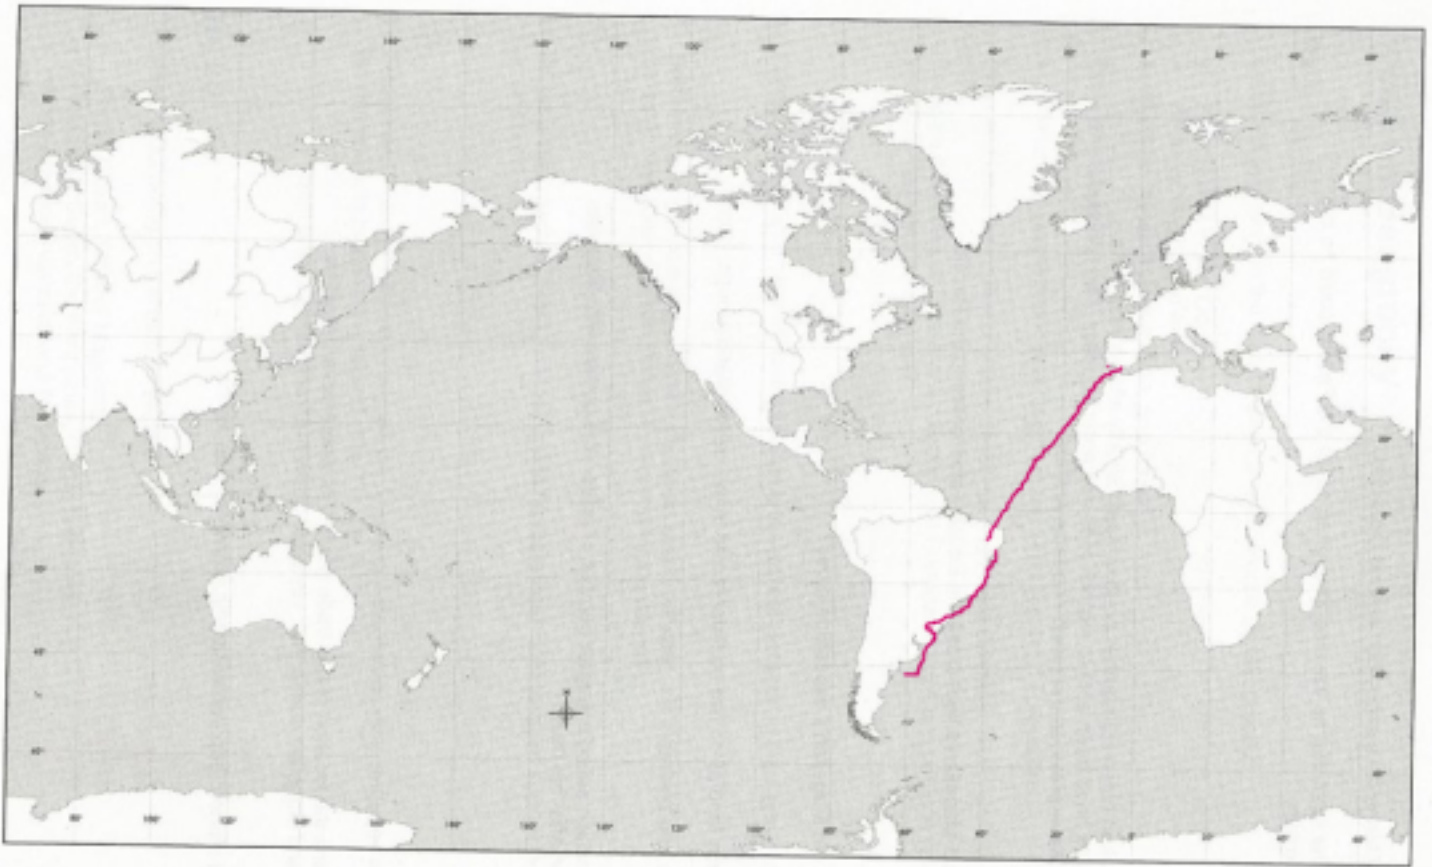

Landfall: Brazil

Landfall: Brazil

- Sail west from Spain
- Storms & calms in the Atlantic
- All 5 ships make landfall on east coast of South America
- Trade with natives and restock food/water supplies

Slide12

Wintering over in Patagonia

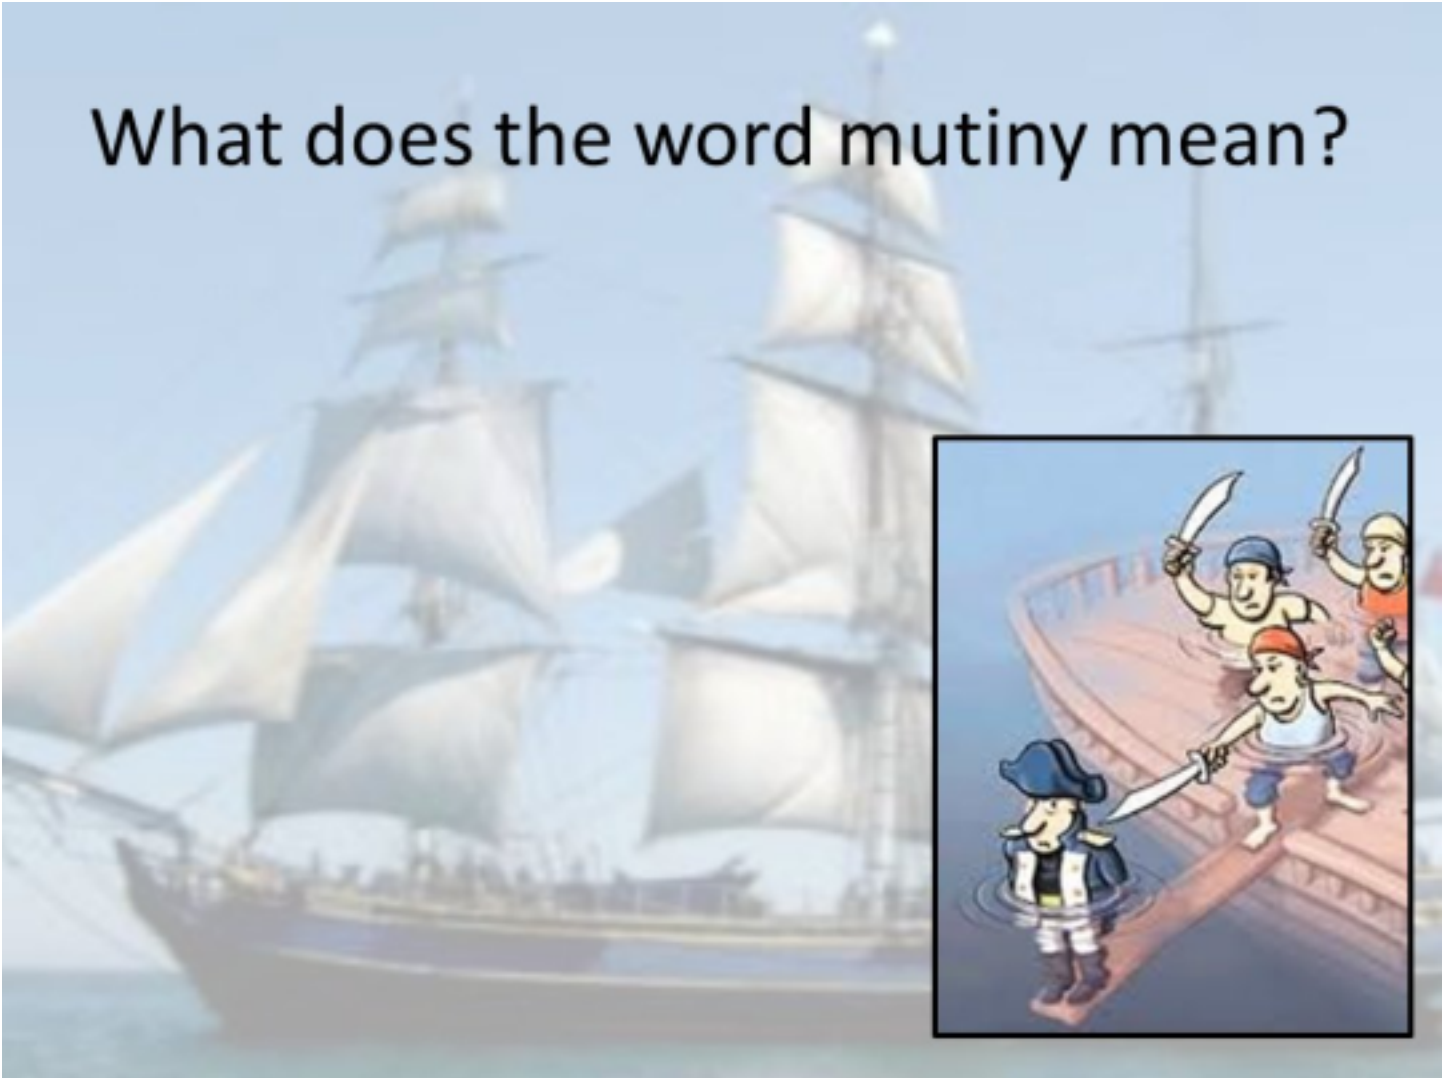

Wintering over in Patagonia

- Expedition leaves Brazil
- Heads south along the coastline
- Stop and Anchor in a bay for the winter
- Meet the natives of Patagonia
- Lose 1 ship during a storm

What does the word mutiny mean?

What does the word mutiny mean?

The Mutiny

The Mutiny

- Group of Spanish Officers mutinies and takes control of 3 of the 4 remaining ships
 - Why? Possibly due to Magellan being Portuguese.
- Magellan regains control of the fleet
 - Mutineers are severely punished

Discovering the Strait

Discovering the Strait

- Spring arrives and begin sailing south
- Enter a large bay....
 - Magellan sends 2 ships to explore it
- Ships return with news of a small channel entering another bay
- 4 ships enter
 - But Mutineers on 1 ship sneak away and heads back to Spain.
- 3 ships make it through to the Pacific

Crossing the Pacific

Crossing the Pacific

- 3 months – sail WNW across the Pacific

- Food rots
 - Eat rats, leather, and sawdust
 - Scurvy kills many sailors

- Fleet makes landfall on Guam and Rota
 - Resupply on food and water

- 13,000 miles of Pacific
 - Finally reach the Philippines

Disaster in the Philippines

Disaster in the Philippines

- Magellan claims islands for Spain
- Trades with natives & Baptizes many
- One island chief refuses to welcome him
 - Magellan attacks the island
 - As they land on the beach, Magellan's crew is attacked
 - Some of his crew escape
- Magellan is killed.

The Voyage Home

The Voyage Home

- After Magellan's Death
 - Crew burns one ship and continues to sail towards the Indies
 - Reach the Spice Islands and load cargo.
- 2 remaining ships head in opposite directions
 - East to try to reach Mexico
 - West to head to Spain
 - Returns after 3 years
 - Only a crew of 18 remains

Coming up next

Coming up next

Homework: Finish Unit 5 Lesson 3 Take home quiz (in sapphire)

-Complete study guide (we will review as a class tomorrow)